

AIM HIGH

Aim High is a targeted study program that supports educational outcomes for young people from refugee and migrant backgrounds.

Aim High provides specific support across the year 9 and 10 curriculum, with a strong emphasis on core curriculum subjects such as science and maths.

ELIGIBILITY

Year 9 and 10 students from refugee and migrant backgrounds in Tasmanian Government schools.

LOCATION OF STUDY SUPPORT

Aim High delivers weekly study support sessions at Migrant Resource Centre Tasmania, 1A Anfield St Glenorchy. Volunteers are available to drive participants home after sessions using the MRC Tas bus.

DAY AND TIME

Every Wednesday from 3:30pm till 5:00pm during school term.
Snacks provided! :)

CONTACT

Zelinda Sherlock on 6221 0999 or email zsherlock@mrctas.org.au | myt.org.au

AIM HIGH

Aim High is a targeted study program that supports educational outcomes for young people from refugee and migrant backgrounds.

Aim High provides specific support across the year 9 and 10 curriculum, with a strong emphasis on core curriculum subjects such as science and maths.

ELIGIBILITY

Year 9 and 10 students from refugee and migrant backgrounds in Tasmanian Government schools.

LOCATION OF STUDY SUPPORT

Aim High delivers weekly study support sessions at Migrant Resource Centre Tasmania, 1A Anfield St Glenorchy. Volunteers are available to drive participants home after sessions using the MRC Tas bus.

DAY AND TIME

Every Wednesday from 3:30pm till 5:00pm during school term.
Snacks provided! :)

CONTACT

Zelinda Sherlock on 6221 0999 or email zsherlock@mrctas.org.au | myt.org.au

